PRESS RELEASE

State Drama Awards for Springwood

Springwood School was one of nineteen schools that participated in the 2012 statewide Alabama Independent School Association drama competition on Friday, January 20, 2012 in Montgomery. Again this year, Springwood students took top honors!

Springwood senior, Rhys Bendell, received the state award for "Best Actor". Also he was awarded 1st place in the Solo division for "An Arrowing Experience". Additionally, Rhys Bendell and senior, Grayson Solt, received 2nd place in the Duet division for their performance of "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead" by Tom Stoppard. Both Rhys Bendell and Grayson Solt were named to the AISA All-State Cast.

Also, Springwood students, Rhys Bendell, Grayson Solt, Cole Cleveland, Daniel Shanley, and Corbin Hoats received a 2nd place win in the Musical division for their presentation of, "I Believe in You" from "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying".

Springwood School's Drama Coach, Mr. Dale Freeman, was recognized at this year's AISA State Drama Festival at Faulkner University for both establishing the festival and being present this year to celebrate its 30th anniversary.

Springwood School, located in Lanett, is an independent, fully-accredited school for grades K4 through 12, providing a college preparatory education in a Christian environment.
