PRESS RELEASE Alabama Independent School Association July 7, 2010

AISA ANNOUNCES SPRINGWOOD SCHOOL AS AISA'S CLASS AA PRESIDENT'S AWARD WINNER FOR 2009-2010

The Alabama Independent School Association is pleased to announce that Springwood School is the recipient of the AISA Class AA PRESIDENT'S AWARD designation for the 2009-2010 school year. The President's Award was established by the AISA for the specific purpose of recognizing member schools that achieve academic excellence during the school year. This award also serves as a symbol of recognition to the individuals who have given unselfishly of their time to serve as President to the Alabama Independent School Association. The criteria for winning the AISA President's Award includes achievement in all areas of school excellence such as: standardized testing, scholarships, academic scholars, academic competitions, professional personnel standards and development, accreditation, and other activities that celebrate excellence in academics.

The AISA has been steadfast in its efforts since 1970 to maintain an organization of independently operated non-public schools that are rich in diversity, committed to academic excellence, and deeply concerned about the growth and development of children and youth. The association's goal is to provide quality educational opportunities for those parents choosing an alternative to public education.

The AISA PRESIDENT'S AWARD program is sponsored by the AISA to recognize member schools with outstanding educational programs. Springwood School has attained a high level of excellence in the areas of student and teacher performance, plant and facilities, student life, and community involvement and is a very worthy recipient of the AISA PRESIDENT'S AWARD.
