

PRESS RELEASE
March 15, 2010

Springwood School students take top awards at the LaGrange Museum Creative Youth Art League art show

Springwood students competed in the 2010 LaGrange Museum Creative Youth Art league Art Show, submitting nine art pieces. Springwood students took six awards, which was the most awards given to any one school in the seven private and public schools competing. Five Springwood students placed in the top three awards, in several different categories. The Lagrange Museum provided cash awards to students who placed in the top three of their category. Student artwork will be on display at LaGrange Art Museum through March 24th. Springwood students winning awards were: 1st Place - Digital Imaging: Ralph Groover (10th grade), 1st Place - Sculpture: Rebecca Beall (11th grade), 2nd Place - Mixed Media: Gerd'Anice Noel (9th grade), 2nd Place - Photography: David Johnson (9th grade), and 3rd Place - Photography: Cierra Horne (9th grade).

Ralph Groover also received the Director's Choice Award. This award is given by the museum director to the student artwork believed to best exemplify the strongest mastery of both creativity and technique.